CIRCULAR NO. 119/2021-GST

Dated Dispur the 29th November, 2021.

Subject: Clarification on certain refund related issues- reg.

No. CT/GST-15/2017/589.— Various representations have been received from taxpayers and other stakeholders seeking clarification in respect of certain issues relating to refund. The issues have been examined. In order to ensure uniformity in the implementation of the provisions of the law across field formations, the Principal Commissioner of State Tax, Assam, in exercise of its powers conferred by section 168 of the Assam Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 (hereinafter referred to as “Assam GST Act”), hereby clarifies each of these issues as under:

| Sl. No. | Issue | Clarification |
|---------|--|---|
| 1. | Whether the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 54 of the Assam GST Act regarding time period, within which an application for refund can be filed, would be applicable in cases of refund of excess balance in electronic cash ledger? | No, the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 54 of the Assam GST Act regarding time period, within which an application for refund can be filed, would not be applicable in cases of refund of excess balance in electronic cash ledger. |
| 2. | Whether certification / declaration under Rule 89(2)(l) or 89(2)(m) of Assam GST Rules, 2017 is required to be furnished along with the application for refund of excess balance in electronic cash ledger? | No, furnishing of certification / declaration under Rule 89(2)(l) or 89(2)(m) of the Assam GST Rules, 2017 for not passing the incidence of tax to any other person is not required in cases of refund of excess balance in electronic cash ledger as unjust enrichment clause is not applicable in such cases. |
| 3. | Whether refund of TDS / TCS deposited in electronic cash ledger under the provisions of section 51 / 52 of the Assam GST Act can be refunded as excess balance in cash ledger? | The amount deducted / collected as TDS / TCS by TDS / TCS deductors under the provisions of section 51 / 52 of the Assam GST Act, as the case may be, and credited to electronic cash ledger of the registered person, is equivalent to cash deposited in electronic cash ledger. It is not mandatory for the registered person to utilise the TDS / TCS amount credited to his electronic cash ledger only for the purpose for discharging tax liability. The registered person is at full liberty to discharge his tax liability in |

|-----------|--|---|
| | | respect of the supplies made by him during a tax period, either through debit in electronic credit ledger or through debit in electronic cash ledger, as per his choice and availability of balance in the said ledgers. Any amount, which remains unutilized in electronic cash ledger, after discharge of tax dues and other dues payable under Assam GST Act and rules made there under, can be refunded to the registered person as excess balance in electronic cash ledger in accordance with the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 54, read with sub-section (6) of section 49 of Assam GST Act. |
| 4. | Whether relevant date for the refund of tax paid on supplies regarded as deemed export by recipient is to be determined as per clause (b) of Explanation (2) under section 54 of Assam GST Act and if so, whether the date of return filed by the supplier or date of return filed by the recipient will be relevant for the purpose of determining relevant date for such refunds? | Clause (b) of Explanation (2) under Section 54 of Assam GST Act reads as under: “(b) in the case of supply of goods regarded as deemed exports where a refund of tax paid is available in respect of the goods, the date on which the return relating to such deemed exports is furnished;” On perusal of the above, it is clear that clause (b) of Explanation (2) under section 54 of the Assam GST Act is applicable for determining relevant date in respect of refund of amount of tax paid on the supply of goods regarded as deemed exports, irrespective of the fact whether the refund claim is filed by the supplier or by the recipient. Further, as the tax on the supply of goods, regarded as deemed export, would be paid by the supplier in his return, therefore, the relevant date for purpose of filing of refund claim for refund of tax paid on such supplies would be the date of filing of return, related to such supplies, by the supplier. |

6. This Circular is clarificatory in nature and not meant for any interpretation of provisions of the Act and rules.

7. Difficulties, if any, in implementation of the above instructions may be brought to the notice of the Principal Commissioner at an early date.
8. This Circular shall be deemed to have been issued on 17th November, 2021.
